

Maths resource creator

This role is about creating, preparing maths resources for Early years up to KS3

The role includes drafting up maths questions, the explanation to solve the questions and worksheet answers.

You will be responsible for

- Ensuring the suitability of questions is age appropriate
- The clarity of the working out sheets is understandable
- The answers to the questions are accurate
- The layout plan of the worksheet.

What we expect

Is for you to create a few worksheets per week
To check questions are suitable
Answer are correct

What skills do I need?

You will need a good understanding of maths up to GCSE level or understand basic mathematical concepts, a logical approach, good organisational skills and the ability to work independently.

You will need to be organised and reliable as we will need you to help us meet our deadlines. You will need to be proactive and use your initiative whilst creating worksheets.

What will you gain?

You will gain real experience working for a fast paced social enterprise You will learn the process of publishing educational material.

You will gain an understanding of U.K maths curriculum

You will providing young people and children learning resources which will positively impact their

Training and support

You will be given full training on how to create a worksheet to our standards

You will be supervised throughout your volunteering experience

You will be given feedback/ coaching throughout your volunteering
You will be given induction training to get you up to speed

