

On boarder Role

About the opportunity

For this role, we would like a volunteer to support our onboarding process. Our Team at Beards & Books is constantly growing and we have systems in place to ensure from the moment a volunteer expresses interest they are contacted and provided with the necessary information.

What skills do I need?

We are looking for a volunteer with the following characteristics:

- Reliable
- Organised
- Polite telephone manner
- Adhere to our Beards and Books standards
- An effective communication style
- Willingness to learn about BAME communities in the UK
- Willingness to undergo communications training

What will you gain?

You will gain real experience working for a fast paced social enterprise
You will learn how to fully use social media platforms
You will gain experience in how social media campaigns work
You will gain marketing experience

Training and support

You will be given full training on our database's which we use
You will be supervised throughout your volunteering experience
You will be offered to go training courses throughout the year
You will be given feedback/ coaching throughout your volunteering
You will be given induction training to get you up to speed

